Every Other Weekend Custody Calendar 2026–2027

An every other weekend custody calendar for 2026 and 2027, already filled in from an example start date. Each letter is the parent the child sleeps at that night. Set your own start date, the nights that make up a weekend, and who is A or B in the spreadsheet, and follow your own order or agreement.

The pattern: A 14-night cycle where B has Friday and Saturday night every second weekend and A has the other 12 nights. If a weekend in your order includes Sunday night, change the pattern to AAAABBBAAAAAAA in the spreadsheet; add any midweek overnights the same way.

Example start date (night 1 of the cycle): Monday, January 5, 2026. Every page after this one is filled in from that date. Your own start date and who is A or B will likely be different.

Read this first

- This is an example. The letters start from the example start date shown on the key page. If your rotation starts on another date, or the other parent has the first stretch, use the spreadsheet: change the start date or swap the letters and every night re-fills.
- Mark nights, not days: each letter is the parent the child sleeps at that night. How overnights are counted can differ by order or court.
- Holidays, school breaks and agreed swaps usually change some nights. Write them on the key page or over the letter in the spreadsheet.
- Your order, parenting plan or local rules control. This calendar doesn't say which schedule to choose or how a court decides.

General template for organizing your own information. It is not legal advice and not a court-approved form. Court rules and required forms vary by state and county, so check your court's local rules and self-help center.
