Custody Calendar Template 2026–2027

A blank year-at-a-glance calendar for a custody or parenting-time schedule. Write who each letter stands for in the key, then mark each night A or B for the parent the child stays with that night. Count the marks under each month.

Key

A =
B =
Pattern (as your order or agreement words it)
Exchange day, time and place
Holidays and school breaks
Agreed swaps (date agreed)

How to use it

- Fill in the key first: who is A, who is B, and the pattern you are following, written the way your order or agreement words it.
- Mark nights, not days: put the letter of the parent the child sleeps at that night. Your order or court may count time differently.
- Use pencil, or two highlighters, so a swap is easy to change. In the spreadsheet, type A or B under a date and the cell colours itself.
- Note holidays, school breaks and swaps in the key, with the date you agreed them.
- This is a planning and record-keeping calendar. It doesn’t say what schedule to ask for or how a court decides.

General template for organizing your own information. It is not legal advice and not a court-approved form. Court rules and required forms vary by state and county, so check your court's local rules and self-help center. Free parenting time calculator: pick a schedule or tap each night and see overnights per year for each parent, at custodycommander.com/tools/parenting-time-calculator/. Custody Commander also has a free plan, no card, for organizing evidence and a timeline.
